The AIAA Hampton Roads Section, The NASA Langley Research Center, and The National Consortium for Aviation Mobility cordially invite you to attend A Briefing by DayJet Corporation President and CEO Edward E. Iacobucci

In 1998, Ed Iacobucci, a system software expert with super management skills, won the CNN and USA Today “International Entrepreneur of the Year” award. In January 2002, Iacobucci co-founded DayJet Corp. with the mission of bringing affordable and accessible “Per-Seat On-Demand” jet travel to more people and more organizations. He started with one Bombardier Learjet 60. Business has since “taken off.”

Date: Thursday, May 12

Place: Reid Auditorium

Time: 1:00pm

If you would like to join Mr. Iacobucci for lunch at noon, May 12, in the Langley Room, Reid Center, please make reservations by calling Margaret Lynch at 864-6124 by May 11 (seating limited).

Buffet Lunch: Beef, chicken, seafood, salad,
Vegetables, rice, dessert

Where: Langley Room, Reid Center

When: Noon, May 12
